PANEL E

QUESTIONS

1. What signs of family dehumanization can we see in today's society?
2. Which consequences come from that dehumanization, mainly to the weakest family members: children, youths and elderly people?
3. What sins (individual and social) most weaken families?
4. Is the wide spread of media a challenge to family union and dialogue?
 - a) What values (or counter-values) are most defended by media today?
 - b) Do you usually discuss the ideas spread by the media in your family?
 - c) Which strategies can you give to the correct use of the media, according to the Gospel teaching?
5. Are the members of my family aware of what they can do for the future of humanity? What can they actually do to interact with society as yeast powder in dough?
